OFFICIAL VERSION OF BATTLE

"Yesterday morning news was received that the German cruiser Emden which had completely disappeared since the action at Penang, had arrived at Keelung, on the Cocos islands and had landed a party to destroy the wireless station and cut the cable. Here it was caught by the Sidney and forced to fight. Sharp action followed the meeting, the Sidney losing three killed and fifteen wounded. The Emden was driven ashore and burned. Its losses are reported as being heavy. All possible assistance was given the survivors by the various ships dispatched to the scene.

"With the exception of the German squadron off the coast of Chile, the whole Pacific and Indian oceans are clear of the enemy's warships."

The admiralty telegraphed congratulations to the Sidney's commander.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—That British warships have destroyed the dangerous German cruiser Emden and imprisoned the cruiser Konigsberg, was announced by the admiralty today. The warship Sidney, with superior guns and armament, drove the Emden ashore on the Cocos islands, in the Indian ocean, 500 miles southwest of Japan, where the German cruiser burned to the water's edge. The Konigsberg was chased to Port Rufugi island off German West Africa, where it is reported to be aground.

Both of the German cruisers accomplished terrific destruction to British commerce since the outbreak of the war, the Emden destroying twenty to thirty ships, with the Konigsberg holding a similar record. The Sidney lost three killed and fifteen wounded. The Emden carried 370 men and is believed to have lost heavily.

Captain Von Muller and most of the crew of the Emden are believed to have been saved, the last advices said. The British cruiser Chatham with superior guns discovered the Konigsberg hiding in shoal water in the Rufugi river. The crew of the Konigsberg landed and entrenched, and the Chatham bombarded the position. The damage done is unknown. The Britons then sunk colliers in the mouth of the river. The Konigsberg is bottled up, as a result.

The Sidney, which destroyed the Emden, belongs to Australia's naval establishment. It recently located the Emden and tried to force a battle, but the German ship escaped. The Sidney pursued her for several days, finally forcing an issue when she came up off Cocos Bay. The Germans, despite their inferior calibre guns and armament, fought gallantly. Finally, hopelessly out of commission, the cruiser went ashore, where the Sidney poured in a few more shots to make her destruction certain.

Regarding the Konigsberg, the Admiralty said: "On October 13, the Chatham discovered the Konigsberg hiding in shoal water in the Rufugi river opposite the Mafia Islands, in German East Africa. Owing to its Greater draft, the Chatham was unable to reach the Konigsberg, which was probably aground. Part of the Konigsberg's crew had landed, and were entrenched on the river bank. Both the entrenchments and the ship were bombarded by the Chatham, but on account of the dense palm groves, it was impossible to estimate the damage done.

Pending further operations for the capture and destruction of the Konigsberg, efforts will be made to bottle her up by sinking colliers. The river is the only navigable channel. The ship is hence imprisoned and unable to do further harm to shipping.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The Evening News this afternoon said: "To the British nation there is one regret in connection with the destruction of the Emden. This is the possibility of the loss of her captain's life. He was a brave and courteous gentleman. He played the game admirably. We hope he is saved."

LONDON, Nov. 10.—The Norwegian steamer Pulton struck a mine off Yarmouth today and sank. Three passengers and nineteen of the crew were saved.

Club Women Open Convention Here Week Offers Brightest of Programs

Large Outside Attendance of Thirty State and District Officers to Take Active Part in Proceedings

Today witnesses the opening in Santa Ana of the thirteenth annual convention of the Southern district of the California Federation of Women's Clubs. The sessions are being held in Elks' club house, and will continue through Nov. 10, 11, 12, 13.

The indications are that this will be one of the most successful of the district conventions that have been held in Southern California. A large outside attendance of delegates and visitors is already materializing, and the membership of the many federated clubs in Orange county and Santa Ana will swell the attendance to many hundreds.

Mrs. A. J. Lawton, district president, has been indefatigable in her efforts to present an interesting and valuable program, and the enthusiasm of the president has communicated itself to others, hence the outlook for the convention is unusually good.

Thirty state and district officers will be present to take part in the program, and several former state and district officers who reside in Santa Ana will add to the prestige of the occasion. Capable local committees have brought the details of entertainment and reception to a stand-point of near-perfection. The AMSTERDAM (via London), Nov. 10.—The correspondent of the Tijd at Antwerp says: "The movement of German troops from the western theater of war on a big scale is now progressing. A large number appear to have been withdrawn from the Yser."

"Long military trains filled with men and munitions are moving into Germany by way of Brussels and Louvain."

BRITISH WARSHIPS ARE HEADED FOR BIG CANAL

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Seven British warships, apparently dreadnoughts, heading for the Panama Canal and steaming at full speed, were sighted off the Panama Islands last Friday by passengers of the United Fruit Line steamer Suriname, which arrived here yesterday from Cuba.

James Cavanaugh, one of the passengers, formerly a lieutenant in the British navy, expressed the opinion that the British fleet was bound for the Pacific coast of South America to avenge the defeat of the British fleet of cruisers by German warships.

U. S. TO BUILD TWENTY FOREIGN SUBMARINES

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—An order for the immediate construction of twenty submarines has been placed with the Fore River Shipbuilding Corporation of Quincy, it has been learned. Officials of the plant refused information as to the identity of the power for which the submarines are intended. An officer of the corporation said the order would amount to about $10,000,000.

The order came to Quincy through the officers of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation at South Bethlehem, Pa.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—German attacks south of Ypres have been checked, the war office announced this afternoon. "Around Dixschote our forces have advanced perceptibly. From La Basse Canal to the Woivre region our lines have been consolidated, and are making considerable progress. New German attacks at Vosges were repulsed," the statement concluded.

The situation all along the battle front is satisfactory, was unofficially claimed tonight. The Germans are falling back at many points, it is claimed. From Thiel 35,000 Germans are reported as turning toward Ghent with their artillery. It is believed here this movement presages a general retirement in that region.

BRYAN SAYS ELECTION IS WILSON ENDORSEMENT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Secretary Bryan, back at the State Department after his campaign trip west, issued a formal statement summarizing the results of the elections and declaring that they could not be construed otherwise than an endorsement of President Wilson and his policies.

Pointing to the slump of the Progressive vote as the outstanding feature of the election returns, Secretary Bryan said this had resulted in no change in the leadership of the regular Republican party.

DARING ROBBERY IN LOS ANGELES

Woman Tourist Drugged and Rings Torn From Hands
While Unconscious

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 10.—One of the most daring and unusual robberies ever reported to the police here occurred in the Mayhew Apartment House, Valencia and Orange street, at dusk last night, when Mrs. F. Powers, a wealthy tourist from Washington, D. C., was mysteriously overcome by the fumes of some strange anesthetic.

When she recovered consciousness in her apartment she reported to the detective that jewelry—diamonds and rings—valued at $1000 had been stolen from her. In addition to this Mrs. Powers believes that about $40 in change was also taken by the bandit.

JEROME JUNCTION, Ariz., Nov. 10.—A few moments after Oldfield's speeding Stutz was sighted down the mountainside, from here, a cloudburst deluged the mountains and valley.

Oldfield failed to arrive at the expected time and scouts have been sent out to locate him.

All the mountain country from here to Prescott is inundated, a terrific rain, beginning this afternoon, making the course dangerous.

PRESCOTT, Nov. 10.—Driving at terrific speed through the heavy rain Barney Oldfield was sighted from Prescott this afternoon. For the last hundred miles his run has been under conditions unprecedented in automobile racing. The roads were miniature rivers. The car threw water and mud hundreds of feet in the air as he tore across the country.

Thousands were standing in the rain awaiting the racers. A royal welcome has been prepared.

NEEDLES, Nov. 10.—The Phoenix racers resumed their grind at 5:30 this morning. The weather is clear and warm, with little wind. The racers departed in the order they arrived last night.

GOLDROADS, Ariz., Nov. 10.—Davis in Simplex No. 4 led the racers here, arriving at 7:16, followed within ninety seconds by Oldfield, in Stutz No. 5, Durant, in Chevrolet No. 20, Beaudet in Paige No. 1 in order.

Kincaid, special No. 10, halted for two broken axles. The first two resumed, but the latter is apparently hopelessly delayed. Cadillac, No. 19, was delayed for new tires, as was No. 17, Metz. No. 14 is unofficially reported out of the race.

TRUXTON, Ariz., Nov. 10.—Davis, in Simplex, No. 4, continued to lead here, passing at 9:10. Nikrent, in Paige, No. 1, passed at 9:16; Oldfield, in Stutz, 30 seconds later.

U.S. CORN CROP PROVES TO BE BUMPER ONE

Yield Damaged But Increased; Value of Crop Estimated at $1,885,867,324

CHICAGO, 10.—The corn crop yield in the United States is placed at the enormous figure of 2,705,692,000 bushels in the estimate issued by the Department of Agriculture in its November crop report.

Although the crop was reported injured from drought, chinch bugs and other detrimental causes, comparison with that of 1913 shows an increase of about 250,000,000 bushels.

This brings the predictions of agricultural experts for a bumper crop of corn in the country up to expectations.

Comparative gains are shown in other crops, the yield in wheat being 891,550,000 bushels for 1914, as compared with 763,380,000 bushels for last year. Oats gained a few million bushels; the figures being 1,139,741,000 for 1914, and 1,121,768,000 for 1913. Barley and rye showed large gains, while cotton came relatively close in the figures, the gain being about 500,000 pounds.

The figures for the production of 1914 shows buckwheat to be 17,025,000 bushels; potatoes, 406,208,000 bushels; sweet potatoes, 56,030,000 bushels; tobacco, 982,715,000 pounds; flaxseed, 15,973,000 bushels; apples, 258,862,000 bushels and sugar beets, 5,174,000 tons.

The corn crop of the year is believed to be the most valuable ever grown in the United States, because of the European war. On November 1 the average price being paid to the farmer for his crop was 69.7 cents a bushel. Figuring on this basis, the value of the entire yield of the country would be $1,885,867,324.

WINTERSBURG HOUSE DESTROYED BY FIRE

Fire yesterday completely destroyed a six-room house belonging to R. H. Miller, at present operating a barber shop at Los Alamitos, at Wintersburg. The house had been rented by Miller to C. B. Harrigan. Mrs. Harrigan was cooking with an oil stove. In some manner the kitchen caught fire from the stove and the house was soon a mass of flames. About 100 persons gathered at the scene of the fire, but were unable to do anything to save either the house or its contents. The house was valued at about $450. The value of the furniture is unknown. It is not known whether there was any insurance on the house.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK HOT TEA!

Get a small package of Hamburg Brewster Tea, or as the German folks call it, "Hammerbrust Tee," at any pharmacy. Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time during the day or before retiring. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure grip, as it opens the pores of the skin, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking up a cold. Try it the next time you suffer from a cold or the grip. It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore safe and harmless.

Dog Acts as War Courier Carries Belgian Messages

THIS dog has won considerable fame among the Belgians during the war, for he was used as a messenger between different regiments of the Belgians in the field. In some cases where it was impossible to send other messengers during a battle, or to use telephones, the dog was trained to run through the German lines. The Belgians have used dogs continually in the war to draw light, rapid re guns and small carts.

MAP OF AFRICA, TURKEY ALSO, TO BE CHANGED BY GREAT WAR

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD

BERLIN, Oct. 19.—(By mail to New York).—Whatever way the war goes Turkey will be a changed country. If the allies win, Russia will gain Constantinople, and the rest of Turkey will go to France and England. Persia will go to France, in all likelihood, or at least French influence will be forced on the Persian government.

If Germany wins, Turkey will submit to German influence and an arrangement will be made whereby German finance, German commerce and German enterprise will be given the inside track within Turkey domain.

It is in Africa that the big jackpot for which the nations of Europe are fighting is stacked up and how much the map of Africa is changed depends upon how pronounced a victory either side wins.

Germany has no great possessions in Africa to lose. In fact she has everything to win in the way of African territory and little to have taken from her.

The Final Settlement

The men of Germany who do not measure this war in terms of dead men and horrors of battle but only in terms of what is to be gained or lost, figure the final settlement out this way:

Portugal has got a bit of the Congo; she doesn't need it and she is not improving it and just because the Portuguese three hundred years ago seized this territory is no proof that Portugal is entitled to this territory today. Germany needs the Portuguese Congo.

France has a bit of the Congo. France is not a growing nation. In 1870, at the time of her war with Prussia, her population was 39,000,000. It has about 39,000,000 today. Germany is a growing nation. In 1870 her population was 42,000,000. Today it is 67,000,000. Germany must have more territory and the French must surrender their part of the Congo if Germany is victorious.

The English, too, have a bit of the Congo. It goes without saying that, if Germany has her way, England will surrender this piece of Africa to her rival.

Blames England for War

The German argument is not that she must have more soil or more room for her masses.

Prof. Hans Delbruck, the eminent German publicist, who gave me most of my information on this subject, said to me:

"There is plenty of room in Germany for her masses. The trouble with us is our overflow of the upper classes. Our great educational institutions turn out yearly more professional men than we have either room or work for and we must have colonies in which these men can exert their energies."

It is on England that Prof. Delbruck places the responsibility for the war.

"It was England alone that could have avoided this war," he said. "If England had agreed that Germany was a growing country and that she was entitled to have a place in the world there would have been no war. But Germany needed room and territory and England would not permit her to take it. Instead England, knowing that Russia desires to gain control over entire eastern Europe, encouraged Russia to strike the blow that brought on the present war."

"If Germany is crushed England will be master of the world, for she will then be able to dictate to weakened Russia, and to give France only a small portion of the Turkish territory."

The Opportune Moment

I asked Prof. Delbruck what chance there might be that the United States would have an opportunity to arrange peace between the allies and Germany.

"If, at just the right moment, President Wilson says, 'This is a miserable war and I request you to stop and talk the matter over,' I think he would be heard."

"But what would be the right moment?" I asked.

"Just after one side of the other has a tremendous victory. Then if the victor proves generous and the other side proves willing peace might be arranged. For instance, next week it is probable that the Germans will have a tremendous victory in Russia and another in Southern France. Then I believe, with a twinkle in his eye, that President Wilson might suggest peace to England."

"I do not wish to mislead you," he concluded. "When I speak about conditions and plans for territory I am telling you only what the intellectuals of Germany believe. I am not speaking for the masses. Of course we have jingoism, as any other country has and the masses now and then raise a furor that has no basis or reasoning."

As far as I can gather, about all the masses have to do with this entire affair in Germany is to fight.

MYSTERIOUS FIRES IN SANTA BARBARA RANGE

SANTA BARBARA, Nov. 10.—From a late hour Sunday night until 6 o'clock Monday morning the forestry officers and residents in the mountain drive section fought a mysterious mountain fire which had sprung up suddenly in the west fork of Sycamore canyon. This is the twelfth mysterious fire occurring in that district in two weeks. The foresters are confident that the fires are being set purposely. Guards have been unsuccessful in trying to discover a clue to work on. The rangers are completely baffled.

WOULD DOUBLE BEAN CROP

OXNARD, Nov. 10.—J. N. French county horticulturist, in searching for select lima bean seed for experimental purposes, has found one vine, on the Hugh Henry ranch in the Coltona, having 197 mature pods containing 643 lima beans. If this size could be reached by every vine in a field, the yield would be 262 sacks to the acre, instead of the present average of twenty to forty sacks.

COUNTY FRUIT TO BE SHOWN TO STUDENTS

J. R. Schooley as a committee for the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, has gotten together an interesting exhibit for the Oregon Agricultural College. The Horticultural department of the school is holding a show of horticultural products from November 6th to 10th inclusive. It is the only show of its kind in the northwest. Among the many phases of horticultural pomology is the greatest. Under pomology comes subtropical pomology. The Santa Ana entry will be made under this class.

Mr. Schooley's son, Paul Schooley, is a student at the Oregon Agricultural College and it was through his endeavor and influence that the Chamber of Commerce was enabled to enter an exhibit.

C. I. Lewis, head of the department and vice president of the American Pomological Society, is the principal influence back of the show, but the students who want to gain the experience are pushing it.

The exhibit as sent includes oranges, lemons, walnuts, lemon guavas, strawberry guavas, pomgranates, avocados, apples, feijoa sellowiana, and persimmons. The avocados and most of the sub tropical fruits are from the Taft ranch at Villa Park. The lemons are from the Tustin Hills Lemon Association.

PEACEFUL AMERICA

Has Much to Be Thankful For

Here we have peace and plenty, while across the seas is deadly strife, turmoil and untold suffering.

Not only is America a peaceful nation; its people are progressive and prosperous. But in spite of these facts America must expect to pay higher prices for many staple articles of diet for some time to come, due to the European war and to natural conditions in this country.

Crops in the United States, in most of the staples, are the largest in years. Notwithstanding this, sugar is ranging higher in price, meat costs are climbing, many fruits are higher and sometimes not obtainable.

Under these conditions many housewives are naturally turning to the high-grade ready-prepared foods, which meet the most exacting requirements, and which have not so quickly felt the upward tendency in prices.

For example, you can obtain "None Such Mince Meat" from your grocer at the same low price it has always sold for, to say nothing of the time and worry you save in getting together the necessary "raw materials" for making up a batch of Mince Meat. Try "None Such," and be convinced.

MOTHER SUPERIOR ROSARY HILL HOME

Tells How Vinol Restores Strength and Vitality to the Weak, Worn-Out Ones in Her Charge.

Rosary Hill Home, Hawthorne, N.Y.

"I have been at work among the sick and poor for nearly eighteen years, and whenever I have used Vinol for run-down, weak or emaciated patients, they have been visibly benefited by it. One patient, a young woman, was so weak and ill she could hardly creep to my door for aid, and was leaning on a friend's arm. I supplied Vinol to her liberally and in a month when she returned to thank me I hardly recognized her. She was strong, her color charming and her cheeks rounded out. These words are uttered from my heart, in order that more people may know about Vinol, as there is nothing makes me happier in the world than to relieve the sick."

Mother M. ALPHONSA LATHROP, O.S.D., Hawthorne, N.Y.

Such disinterested and reliable testimony should convince everyone of the merits of Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic to build up health and strength for all weakened and nervous conditions, whether caused from overwork, worry or chronic coughs and colds. If Vinol fails to benefit we return your money.

PASADENA AND SANTA ANA TO MIX IN DECISIVE GRIDIRON GAME

The Los Angeles Times today has the following concerning the game to be played here next Saturday between Santa Ana and Pasadena high schools:

Since Santa Ana's unexpected defeat of Long Beach, its game with Pasadena Saturday becomes the most important of the pre-American football schedule.

If Santa Ana succeeds in conquering Pasadena its title to the championship is practically clinched. If Pasadena wins, Long Beach is still in its way, but everything will look bright to the Crown City boys. Santa Ana has still to meet Chaffee, and Seay, after the game up there, came to the conclusion that counting chickens before they are hatched is bad business.

Santa Ana has a strong defensive team, while Pasadena has a strong offensive team. Both elevens have firstclass substitutes. Pasadena plays fast football. Santa Ana will be kept moving during the whole game. It seems certain that Pasadena will score.

Seay's men defeated San Diego 54 to 0, while Santa Ana defeated that school 14 to 0. Pasadena held the U. S. C. freshmen to a 0 to 0 score, while the young Trojans defeated Santa Ana. But Santa Ana has just arrived and is playing stronger football than in those games. On the other hand, Pasadena also seems to be coming.

Cochran Hall played with the Trojans when they had a strong defensive team. It was almost impossible to score on U. S. C. in those days, while U. S. C. had to resort to the place kick to score. Seay played on Occidental when it had a wonderful scoring machine. The Tigers then attacked so furiously that they did not have to bother with defensive play. They were crowding their opponent's goal so hotly that their opponents forgot all about attacking.

And that is just the kind of football these two coaches have taught their teams.

While Santa Ana can advance the ball, its remarkable defense eclipses its offensive. While Seay has a defense that was able to hold the U. S. C. freshmen, his offense, which deluged Whittier High 76 to 0, and smothered San Diego 54 to 0, puts its defense to shame.

Santa Ana has the advantage of playing on its own grounds. That is not to be sneezed at. There is nothing like home grounds for winning games.

WILD ANIMAL SHOW HERE ON NOV. 26

The Al G. Barnes big 3-ring wild animal circus is coming, and will give two performances here on Thanksgiving Day.

The coming of this great wild animal show always elicits a great deal of interest, as no other circus equals the Barnes shows for the multitude of entirely original wild animal features presented.

Practically the entire entertainment provided by this show is given by the use of educated animals—600 in number—animals of almost every known species. The show is still a circus, however—a circus from which all tiresome and objectionable features have been eliminated, but which retains the many traditional elements that for years have made the circus the most popular form of entertainment.

For instance, there are innumerable equestrians, acrobats, jugglers, tumblers, high divers, bare-back riders, etc. The performers are animals, yet their work is done with as much or even greater proficiency than one accustomed to see in the human.

The only exception to this rule are the clowns—twelve of them, funny ones, too—for a circus would not be true to tradition without clowns. There's sawdust rings and pink lemonade, for what's a circus without them, otherwise the Barnes Circus is an animal show, exclusively so.

Prominent among the great feature acts presented are Tom, Dick and Harry, juggling horse-riding sea lions; Sampson, the aviation lion, that rides to the top of the tent surrounded by shooting sky rocks; Big Bill, the wrestling grizzly; Mile, Florine and troupe of Persian leopards, jaguars and pumas; Mabel Stark and group of Royal Bengal and Siberian tigers; the horse-riding lions and bears; high diving dogs and monkeys, and the Barnes' troupe of educated world's premium horses and ponies—550 of them.

The big sensational, thrilling spectacle of the program is the group of twenty-four, man-eating African lions shown in an act by Herr Louis Roth. These lions are valued at $50,000 and represent the greatest wild animal act ever known.

Fifty comedy elephants, bears, monkeys, dog, goats, ponies together with Danger, Dynamite and Mileaminit—mules, provide the laughs of the entertainment.

THE PROGRESS OF THE BRIDGE FAD

The everyday person who does not particularly aspire to social success has a hard time trailing after the fads of the day. He may not like to stand wholly aside from the pursuits of his fellow men. Yet to keep even within hailing distance of the tail of the procession involves effort.

So he finds it in the fashion of card playing. He was brought up to play euchre, whist, "high-low-jack," or other old stand-bys, now obsolete. Usually at the entreaty of his wife, with much labor and pains, he has recently partly acquired a few elementary principles of bridge whist.

But by the time these had been learned, he found that auction bridge had become the style. So he was still a social outcast until he should learn auction. If now he has painfully advanced to that point, he has probably discovered that some other variation is the fad, which he must at once acquire or be socially ungenerate.

The tolls house mother, who still makes her own bread, is not commonly a bridge fiend. She may bring up a race of healthy and useful children, may provide comfort and sustenance for the family breadwinner, but from the social viewpoint, she is negligible.

In higher circles, the sway of the bridge fad has been marvelous. After playing afternoons, some women are not satisfied unless they take another bout in the evening to right previous errors of the day. If the baby is sick, well, the maid can look after her. Sunday makes a bad break, but if you go to church in the morning, conscience can make its own adjustments for the afternoon.

Of course, bridge has its uses. The occasional half-played amateurish game yields better results in recreational power than the incessant play of the expert. Where you bring down the wrath of your partner because you did not remember that the six spot of hearts had been played on the second time around, it ceases to be recreation, and is merely work, and non-productive at that.

THE COST OF ADVERTISING

Who pays the cost of advertising?

The Bureau of Corporations of the United States is investigating the subject of the value of advertising, and trying to determine how far it is economically profitable, and whether it costs the public anything. It will no doubt be found that money judiciously spent in advertising reduces the cost of getting the goods to the consumer.

The highest selling costs are found in the store where sales are slow. When a merchant doubles sales, by letting the public know about his goods, he usually adds but very little to the expense for sales force. The overhead expenses, such as taxes, insurance, heat, light, and rent, are increased "but little, if any. Consequently the charge that has to be made to each article to pay clerk hire and overhead expense is reduced. A merchant can afford to sell for less money, meanwhile making a larger profit for himself.

If there were no advertising buying would be very heavy at the height of the season, and would drop off more than it now does between the rush periods. The most economical agency for distributing goods is one that keeps along somewhat the same from one month to another. Advertising informs people that there are special bargains at mid-season periods. It teaches people that by waiting for those periods, they can make economies. That tends to equalize retail trade, and saves the necessity for extra expense during rush periods.

Advertising performs all that could be accomplished by house to house solicitation and at a far less cost. It visits a hundred homes and talks to the inmates thereof, while a solicitor could enter but one.

Advertising then is not an extra charge added to the cost of the goods. It is simply a part of the normal selling expense, reducing the cost of the sales force.

The Political Watchtower

Some people have become inoculated with the habit of talking politics. For the last ten or twelve months they have been putting in all their spare time and some of their time that was not spare in extolling the virtues of particular candidates or describing the iniquities of other candidates about whom they were not so particular.

You might think that with Tuesday's election passed into history, these same political talkers would retire from the street corner and take a bite to eat or drink a coca cola or something before starting in on another line of politics. However, they have not ceased to talk politics. Three or four days were necessary to tell how it happened, but when that got to be an old story something new was needed to occupy the mind.

At first it looked as though the question of who are going to be Sheriff-elect Jackson's deputies would give meat to the hungry to feed upon. But Jack gave forth no shoutings. Neither does he cheer. He keeps on looking wise as a billy owl, shaking hands and hearing from some startling sources of how hard they worked for him. Strange how, after election, a successful candidate gets it impressed upon him how much he owes to some people he had every reason to believe were working for the other fellow.

We are reminded right here to tell a little story of an experience along that line that befell City Trustee George McPhee. He was elected from the fourth ward. If we remember rightly it was quite some battle, too. Only the fourth ward voted upon councilman from that ward. The day after election a candidate for a job as policeman came up to McPhee and wrung his hand gleefully.

"I congratulate you," said the man who wanted to be a city cop. "I certainly did work for you out in my precinct. I certainly turned a lot of votes for you out there."

At a meeting of the directors of the Yorba Linda Water Company duly assembled on the 9th day of Nov. 1914, the said directors waived the collection of four-tenths of the assessment of $10.00 per share upon the capital stock of the corporation duly levied on the 3rd day of October, 1914, and reduced the amount of said assessment from $10.00 per share to $6.00 per share.

In accordance with the law and an order of the Board of Directors made on the 2nd day of Oct. 1914, so many shares of each parcel of stock as may be necessary will be sold at public auction on Saturday, the 28th day of Nov. 1914, at the hour of 12 o'clock M. at the office of the corporation at Yorba Linda, California, to pay the delinquent assessments thereon, together with cost of advertising and expense of sale.

CARL H. SEAMANS,
Secretary Yorba Linda Water Company.
Whose office is located at Yorba Linda, California.

"Where do you live?" asked McPhee. "Oh, I live on Logan street," answered the aspirant for an appointment. "I worked hard for you in my precinct, all right." Logan street happens to lie entirely within the second ward.

Since the sheriff-elect would not say who he was going to appoint as his pay-deputies, the political talk had to bound off in another direction.

For instance, City Clerk Joe Burke has been elected assemblyman, and he is due to report at Sacramento on the first Monday in January. That means that Joe is going to resign as city clerk, his resignation to take effect on January 1. When he comes back from the capitol after the session is over he is going to open up a law office and go forth to give spooks to judges and other persons who insist upon congregating in court-rooms.

The city election comes in April, and Joe's successor will no more than get appointed than he will land on his feet running for city clerk, subject to the will of the people, ahem!

It is declared as though by one who knows that whoever is appointed will have a decided advantage over other aspirants for the place. That may be true. We will not deny it. What we do wish to say is that there will be no scarcity of candidates for the appointment. Joe will never know how popular his job is until he quits it.

So it is to city politics that the political talker can turn his talk and direct his sagacity, suspicions and serious consideration. There is a whole city board to be elected, a city attorney, a city marshal, a city treasurer, a city assessor, a city recorder and a city clerk. The Watchman gets it pretty straight that nearly all the city officials are going to seek reelection. We do not include the city judges in that remark, for we have no information upon which to base a prognostication.

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 10.—In a duel on a Salt Lake train crossing the desert, Pullman Conductor J. D. Fincher shot and killed Dining Car Porter Sam Wilson, a negro. SIDELIGHTS OF THE WAR

LONDON, Nov. 10.—British journalism has contributed 600 men to Lord Kitchener's army. Most of them were already members of the Territorials.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Half of the Germans he saw while fighting at Cambrai had no boots, and to obtain them they robbed the dead and wounded, writes Private Bloomfield in a letter home.

COPENHAGEN, Nov. 10.—According to the Kohnsche Zeitung, the Riviera has been converted into a howling wilderness by anti-war riots, and Nice, Monte Carlo, Cannes and Mentone are little better than a heap of ruins.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—The war office has found it necessary to issue a special notice warning the people not to play with German shells picked up on the battlefields. Several souvenir collectors have been badly hurt by exploding shells.

CALIFORNIA HAS OWN QUARANTINE

Gov. Johnson Guards State Against Spreading Foot and Mouth Disease

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 10.—Governor Hiram W. Johnson issued a proclamation yesterday quarantining the state against the contagious and communicable foot and mouth disease which exists in live stock in the states of Massachusetts, New York, Rhode Island, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Maryland, Michigan, Iowa and Wisconsin. The governor, co-operating with the state veterinarian, Dr. Charles Keane, is determined to block the entry of the disease into California. The quarantine is effective immediately, and is far-reaching, precluding the entry of stock into California from the east and middle west unless examined and permitted to enter by the state veterinarian. "It is easy for the disease to reach the stock of this state," says Dr. Keane, "and there is little doubt that once here it never could be wholly eradicated. Thus it is that extreme measures are taken to protect the stock interests."

RURAL EDUCATION REPORT STARTLES

Condition of Alabama Country Schools Declared to Be Worse Than Jails

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—The United States Bureau of Education has made public an article by W. F. Leagin, state superintendent of education for Alabama, which contains several startling statements. He says, for one thing, that a farmer with a cheap automobile has more invested in that one article than the average rural community as a whole has in its school plant.

To illustrate further the plight of the schools, Superintendent Leagin shows a dilapidated rural school in contrast with the handsomely constructed jail in the same county, costing several thousand dollars. "This jail," he says, "has sanitary drinking fountains, shower baths, clean floors, plenty of light, good ventilation, and is otherwise attractive. Could a person in the district in which this school is located be blamed for preferring the jail to the school?"

"The conditions found are by no means peculiar to Alabama," says Dr. Claxton, United States commissioner of education. "They can be duplicated in some other states."

2 MEXICAN CONSULS SAN DIEGO
SAN DIEGO, Nov. 9.—San Diego has the novel distinction of having two qualified Mexican consuls, Juan Mateos, representing the Carranza faction, and G. Sandoval, the Villa government. The latter was appointed a few days ago and officially took up his new duties Saturday.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—In the two months, August 15 to October 15, during which the Panama Canal has been open, 113 vessels carrying in the aggregate 583,949 tons of cargo have passed through the waterway.

This is about what was expected of the early period of the canal's use.

NATIONAL BANK IN MEXICO CITY SACKED

Rebels Riot; U. S. Marines Occupy Acapulco; Carranza Partially Concedes

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 10.—It is reported here that the port of Acapulco on the Pacific has been occupied by American marines. The occupation is said to have followed a request of the inhabitants, who were suffering great privations owing to the revolution.

VERA CRUZ, Nov. 10.—According to private telegrams received here, the National Bank of Mexico City has been sacked by a mob led by Constitutionalist soldiers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Administration officials admitted last night that the Mexican situation had again assumed a delicate aspect.

Gen. Carranza has partially fulfilled the Washington government's request for guarantees before withdrawing the American troops from Vera Cruz, but his decree does not satisfy the main point asked for by the United States, that Mexicans who served the American government during the occupation of the port be not punished subsequently for such service.

At 6 o'clock tonight Gen. Eulalio Guitierrez, selected by the convention at Aguas Calientes, will be sworn in as provisional president of Mexico. Carranza has been informed by telegraph by a special committee sent by the convention several days ago, and hostilities against him as a rebel will begin at once if he does not recognize the authority of Guitierrez. On account of the brevity of Carranza's tenure, the American government in all probability will take no cognizance of the decree which he is reported to have issued respecting the American occupation of Vera Cruz.

TRAVEL SOCIAL

Baptist C. E. Takes Excursion to Meadow Brook Farm; "Personally Conducted"

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist Church held an enjoyable social in the church Monday evening. At the conclusion of the monthly business meeting, presided over by the president, Miss Edith Watkins, the committee in charge directed the company to a window marked "ticket office." The smiling face of Ben Riesland easily elicited a smile and a handshake, the advertised price of one round-trip ticket that he handed each purchaser.

The travelers then entered a room seated to typify a coach. Here the brakeman, train inspector (Leslie Pearson) and the peanut and popcorn boys, William Taylor and Douglas McPhee) all contributed to the pleasure and amusement of the tourists, who were all booked for Meadow Brook Farm.

Upon arrival at the farm, the large dining room of the church, apple trees, banana trees, cornfield and pumpkin patch greeted the sightseers; also out door sports such as tennis, fishing, etc.

One of the interesting features of the evening just after the crowd arrived at Meadow Brook Farm, was a shower in compliment to Miss Zella Guiley and Ben Riesland, whose marriage takes place at Thanksgiving time. Many useful kitchen articles were received, aluminum ware predominating.

At the conclusion of the jolly evening the young people gathered about the organ and joined in singing of Coronation, Jesus Saviour, Pilot Me and the "Glorious Song."

For Recent Bride

Mrs. John Hawley was the complimentary guest at a pretty Saturday afternoon function where Miss Bessie Hill was hostess. The G street home of the Hills was fragrant with roses massed in baskets, and in the flower adorned rooms the young matrons and maids invited by Miss Hill, engaged in making dainty trifles for the new Hawley home. Later refreshments were served.

The guests present were Mrs. John Hawley, Mrs. Herbert Rankin, Mrs. John Sauters, Misses Evelyn Nunn, Josephine McCrory, Freda Moesser, Louise Montgomery, Edith Wells, Mary and Bernice Shrewsbury, Bessie Lewis, Stella Daniels and Adeline Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Houghton, recently married, were happily surprised last evening when a number of their friends called at their home to offer congratulations and good wishes for a long and happy life. A regular repeater

You may have worn the Clothcraft Blue Serge Special No. 4230 before and remember how distinctive you felt whenever you were dressed in that suit. It certainly gave you more satisfaction than you thought could be derived from a suit for that price.

You'll be glad to hear that 4120 is better than ever this year; because the tariff reduction has allowed the use of a heavier weight serge. That makes the suit a good deal more desirable—giving you longer wear. Yes! the price is the same—$18.50.

Vandermaast & Son

Fourteen of his neighbors were in the conspiracy and each one of them joined in a floral attack on the victim of the evening, showering him with roses, one for each year of his life. Then there were entertaining games, flinch and other pastimes, that whiled away the evening. The visitors took with them delicious home-made candy, cake and ice cream and these were served before they bade Mr. and Mrs. Morrison good night, leaving behind them sincere good wishes and fond hopes for many more birthdays for their host.

AMUSEMENTS

Clune's

Capacity houses has been the rule at Clune's lately, Saturday and Sunday performances attracting crowds that pack this playhouse from pit to dome. Exceptionally entertaining vaudeville acts and vivid reels of realistic pictures have been the magnet to attract such crowds.

A notable act worthy of special mention as an added attraction of last Saturday and Sunday was that of the Misses Howland and Shaw in a finished piano and singing entertainment.

Today and Wednesday there are two interesting Kaleid films besides, a Selig reel up to the usual standard, with the Hearst pictorial news. New films are being released daily, and added to programs unheralded, affording delightful surprises to the audiences.

Three vaudeville acts are "on" for tonight and tomorrow. Louise Santse, a Tyrolean yodeler, renders pleasing songs.

Frawley & Rath—A Man, a Piano, and a Nut—unwork a lot of froth in a fashion to keep one in good humor.

The "Twirling Talbuts" do a trapeze and ring acrobatic act displaying some hazardous feats.

Leroy and Company and the Musical Keuhns are coming attractions.

Matinee performances daily at 2:30 are growing popular for the ladies, besides two full evening performances at 7 and 9 o'clock every evening, are provided. The "Clune habit" is contagious.

A rare treat was offered patrons of Clune's last Saturday and Sunday when Harriet Holland and Jane Shaw "tried out" their piano and singing act, preparatory to going on "the big time." The Misses Holland and Shaw have one of the most refined and pleasing singing and instrumental numbers seen in Santa Ana.

Two pianos are used by the ladies in the opening act. The ladies' work is of the musically variety and won hearty applause from the audience, as did also Miss Shaw's singing.

Y. M. C. A. Entertainment

Once when the Dunbar Quartet and Bell Ringers, who are to appear here at the Opera House Wednesday evening, were in New York, they appeared one night at the famous Knickerbocker Club and the next night before the Bowers Y. M. C. A. This illustrates the cosmopolitan spirit of the Lyceum.

The men who came into the Bowery mission, joined in singing "Nearer My God, to Thee," voluntarily, as the Dunbars closed their program by rendering this selection on the bells.

It makes no difference where the Dunbars appear, they always make a hit with their audiences.

One feature of the program of the Dunbar Company here will be a trio composed of flute, cello and piano. Other features will be vocal and instrumental solos, readings, and bell ringing.

Funeral Services

The mortal remains of Mrs. W. A. McCombs, formerly a well-known resident of Santa Ana, where she was a highly respected member of Torosa Rebekah lodge, were buried yesterday from the undertaking parlors of Overholzer, Los Angeles. The services were at 11 o'clock.

Many beautiful floral offerings were sent from her former friends in this city. Torosa Rebekahs sent an elegant pillow. The Veteran Rebekahs sent a lovely wreath, in the form of "V. R." Another large bouquet was sent by her friends in this city, irrespective of society affiliations.

The Santa Ana lodges were represented at the funeral services by Mesdames D. W. Hicks, Louis Baade and E. Wilkinson, all members of the Rebekah degree in this city.

A Potpourri of News and Views

(From Los Angeles Financial News.)

Greatest Era of Prosperity

American business is on the threshold of a new era. Heroic means met the crisis occasioned by the war in Europe and now the reward is coming. This is the optimistic view of Charles C. Dawes, president of the Central Trust Company, Chicago. In an address before the real estate board of Chicago, Mr. Dawes said:

"The successful application of the clearinghouse certificate basis of exchange between banks—a device which may have averted a panic at the beginning of the war. The crisis was met by heroic means. The purchasing power of the nation was threatened with destruction. Out of the whole situation have grown conditions that justify me in predicting that America is about to enter the greatest period of prosperity in its history."

"The clearinghouse certificate basis of exchange makes a banking panic in this country impossible. If it were extended to an international system it would make impossible the world panic that might follow a world war. It would save the purchasing power of Europe as it has this country and enable them to establish conditions of prosperity."

"A natural reaction toward prosperity, based upon internal conditions, was in progress in the United States when the European war began. In my judgment the war, which for the moment checked it, will have, eventually, the effect of greatly stimulating it. By prompt action our banks avoided the necessity for the widespread calling of loans. Deposits therefore, have not been used to cancel loans to an amount sufficient to wipe out any considerable outstanding purchasing power in the United States. The existence of a purchasing power in the great foundation of prosperity consists itself in activity of exchanges."

Curb Market Prices Repudiated

In all the Chicago morning papers Tuesday appeared the following under a Washington, D. C. date:

"With a view to stabilizing the security markets in New York until the Stock Exchange is reopened and guaranteeing the solvency of many brokerage houses and a large number of individuals, the comptroller of the currency has adopted the policy of recognizing the closing prices of the New York Exchange in determining the values of stocks of such companies. In accordance with this policy, National Bank Examiners have been given informal instructions to pass all loans secured by listed stocks at the value of those stocks at the close of the New York Exchange on July 30, minus the 20 per cent margin. This will apply to National banks in Chicago and all financial centers. The comptroller's action is a practical repudiation of the curb market prices that have prevailed since the closing of the Stock Exchange nearly three months ago."

Wealth of Fresno County

Fresno county is the fourth county in the State in point of assessed valuation, according to figures just issued by the State Controller. It is exceeded only by Los Angeles, San Francisco and Alameda. The total valuation of the county is $96,567,818. Los Angeles county leads all the counties of the State with a total assessed valuation of $849,991,595. Fresno is exceeded only by San Bernardino and Los Angeles counties in the value of railroads as assessed by the State Board of Equalization. The total value of railroads in Fresno county is $8,315,414. San Bernardino railroads are valued at more than $18,000,000, and Los Angeles railroads are valued at more than $11,000,000. Fresno county real estate is valued at $52,874,400 while the improvements are valued at $17,076,835. The value of personal property is $12,503,080. The county is credited with but $224,131 in money and solvent credits.

Los Angeles County Leads World

Los Angeles county leads all other counties in the United States in agriculture both in total value of all farm property and in the total value of all crops. This statement is based on a compilation of figures by the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce from the last United States census report on agriculture. The compilation was completed this week and is being sent out by the Chamber of Commerce. Here are the figures:

Trade Commission Law

One of the measures enacted by the recent session of Congress is the Federal Trade Commission law. This law abolishes the Bureau of Corporations and turns over the functions of that business as also many additional duties to a new commission. This body, the Federal Trade Commission will be named by the President in December as the law becomes operative the first of the New Year. Joseph E. Davis at present chief of the Bureau of Corporations will probably be named chairman of the new Commission which will receive reports from all corporations other than common carriers capitalized at $5,000,000 or more. On direction from the President, the Attorney General, or either House of Congress the commission will investigate corporate activities. It will make public reports and aid the courts in formulating and carrying out the decrees of dissolution.

As to Brown and Yellow Men

According to United States Census bureau there are 760 farms operated in the United States by Chinese of which 512 were in California and of the total number only 57 were owned by the tillers, the remaining 703 being rented. Japanese operated 2502 farms, 1816 in California, and only 257 of the total farms were owned by the brown men. These figures are from the 1910 census. There are 71,531 Chinese and 72,157 Japanese in the United States.

Millions in Gold By Mail

Boston has received its first shipment of gold from the Philadelphia mint by parcel post. The amount was $5,000,000. Heretofore the shipments have been by express.

Tons of Chinese Eggs

Two hundred and fifty tons of Chinese eggs of which 6500 cases were consigned to San Francisco arrived at the Bay City port this week. This is a record shipment.

Earnings Public Utilities

"That well established public utility corporations are not materially affected by National or International periods of depression," says the San Francisco Chronicle, "is shown by the Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago who have received to date the August earnings of forty-four of the sixty-two public utilities regularly reporting to the bankers. These companies operate in twenty-one states from Maine to California, and their progress, therefore, is fairly representative of conditions surrounding these enterprises. The gross earnings of these forty-four companies for August, 1914, increased nearly 3 per cent, and the net earnings 10 per cent over the earnings for August, 1913, as shown by the following figures:

Gross earnings in August, 1914.....	$10,795,609.50
Gross earnings in August, 1913.....	10,490,048.43
Increase.....	2.92
Per cent increase.....	2.77
Net earnings in August, 1914.....	$4,715,601.79
Net earnings in August, 1913.....	4,286,820.92
Increase.....	$428,780.87
Per cent increase.....	10

"The increase of 10 per cent in net earnings is largely due, first, to the ability of the companies to retrench, when necessary, and, second, to economies which are the direct result of large amounts of capital recently expended on extensions and improvements."

Apple Show in Bay City

Perhaps the most beautiful exhibition that was ever opened to the public was the Apple Show in San Francisco last week. There were features never before seen in a great exhibition. Just opposite the entrance to the main tent stood a Dutch windmill, made and set up by a committee of Sebastopol women. The huge revolving wings were made of dried apples. There was a replica of Ramona's wedding place near San Diego, which formed the exhibit of the Julian district, and near by was a big water wheel contributed by Humboldt county and operated by electricity. An allegory built by the Loma Fruit Company of Watsonville, and called "The Kiss of the Oceans," was one of the most spectacular exhibits of the show, and a reproduction of the new Watsonville auditorium, made almost entirely of glasses of jelly, received much admiration. Then there was a log cabin, sent from Santa Cruz county, a miniature of the Greenfield mission, a life-sized elephant, and a mammoth bear representing California, made of dried apples. Most of the feature exhibits were lighted and operated by electricity. It is estimated that 2,000,000 apples were in the main tent, including specimens of several rare varieties. California is the only defined area in the world in which is grown every variety of commercial apple known.

Why Raising of Railroad Rates

At the reopening of the advance rate case of Eastern railroads before the Interstate Commerce Commission this week it was brought out that the railroads of America were facing a crisis as the result of the war in Europe; that on thirty-eight Eastern railroads operating 59,000 miles of transportation lines there had been a shrinkage of $76,000,000 in their annual net revenues; that there are more $3,000,000,000 par value of American railroad securities held abroad as investments; that the demands for cash in Europe growing out of the present situation will doubtless result in large selling of the securities when the markets or stock exchanges are again opened; that the rate of interest on money has advanced and that it will go higher. There are a few of the reasons why an advance in rates is asked.

World's Wheat Crop

The world wheat crop this year probably will be less than in 1913 and 1912, although the United States has had a record-breaking wheat harvest. The statistics announced by the Department of Agriculture indicate the crops of all nations aggregate approximately 3,741,018,000 bushels against 4,125,310,000 bushels in 1913, and 3,791,875,000 bushels in 1912. In Europe, agricultural conditions in most countries this season have been favorable for any moderate yields. It is practically certain that the present shortage of this season's European yield will be magnified by the complete returns. Harvests were pretty well over before, or soon after hostilities began, and the grain is believed to have been saved in generally good condition except in territory actually occupied by the contending armies."

Marketing the Apple Crop

Marketing the apple crop this year is likely to prove a complex problem owing to the war in Europe as over 80 per cent of green apples and more than 90 per cent of the dried apples have heretofore been exported to Europe. This year the crop is estimated at 210,000,000 bushels an extraordinary crop. While there will be great need of preserved foodstuffs which will probably call for all American dried apples the market for the fresh fruits will be restricted. In view of this the Department of Agriculture advises American shippers to stimulate the demand and increase their shipments to Latin America and the Orient.

Validity of Securities Questioned

The Escondido Utilities Company, operating a gas and electric system in San Diego county, has filed an application with the State Railroad Commission to determine the validity of a $16,000 promissory note in favor of W. S. Sheperdson, and $32,000 of bonds pledged as security for the note—the note having been executed and the bonds pledged without securing the consent of the Commission.

Sur. for com. div.....	129,936 Inc. 20,906

Australian Wool

Wool sold in Australia and New Zealand during the year ended June 30 was 1,968,578 bales the value of which was $126,916,060 a new high record.

IF BACK HURTS BEGIN ON SALTS

Flush Your Kidneys Occasionally if You Eat Meat Regularly

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about one ounce of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.—Advertisement.

Figs are finding very ready sale and up to the present time the imported stock has not a figure here all of the fruit on sale being California stock. Loose figs in 25-pound boxes are moving at 6 cents on the black variety and 6 1/2 on the white. Calymna figs, 10 pound packages to the case, sell at $1.25. The movement is very good.

Egg receipts were 134 cases and the market on local stock remained at 42 and northern quotations on the same grade declined 1/2 cent to 51 cents. Butter receipts were 53,020 pounds. An advance of 1 cent was caused by a heavy demand and slacking up of the local manufacturers. Cheese receipts were 8140 pounds.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.
Your hair is your charm. It makes or masks the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application of one of two Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic;
you can get from any drug store a 50-cent bottle of "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," ready to use.
This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Weyth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant.—Advertisement.

'CASCARETS' CLEANSE LIVER AND BOWELS

No More Headache, Bad Colds, Sour Stomach and Constipation

Get a 10-cent box now.
Are you keeping your liver, stomach and bowels clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?
This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the constituted waste matter and poison in the bowels.

No odds how sick, headachy, bilious and constipated you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.
A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a gentle cleansing, too.—Advertisement.

WHITE-LASTRO GO LOOKS A BIG WINNER

Bout is for Ten Rounds at Athletic Club Tomorrow Night

What will be the last of Santa Ana Athletic Club smokers at which bouts of more than four rounds' duration will be staged is scheduled for the Club "gym" for tomorrow evening, beginning at 8:15 o'clock. After the prize-fight amendment goes into effect there will be only four-round bouts staged at the Athletic Club, the management announces.

The main event of tomorrow night's show will be over the ten-round course. In this event Joe White, who has appeared here a number of times, meets Jimmy Lastro, also well known locally, at 122 pounds. White is a San Gabriel boy, while Lastro is from Los Angeles.

Lang Finn meets Walter South in the six-round semi-final at 116 pounds. Both are Los Angeles boys and are noted for their cleverness in the ring.

In addition to these bouts there will be two four-round events. One will be between Frank Ocampo of Santa Ana and George Hammerston of Los Angeles, at 125 pounds. In the other four-round bout Oran Snodgrass, the popular Santa Ana boy, meets Jimmy Arrousez, of Los Angeles, at 108 pounds. A great deal of interest is centered in the Snodgrass-Arrousez bout for the reason that the Santa Ana boy has boxed a large number of both local and Los Angeles boys and has met with but one defeat.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS

LA HABRA ROAD CONTRACT LET

Price to Be Paid is $89,179; Paving Same as That at Fullerton

This afternoon the Board of Supervisors let a contract to the O. & C.
Construction Company of Fullerton for paving about five miles of road in La Habra Valley, reaching from La Habra to Brea, for $89,179.

Bids were received for this road two weeks ago, but they were held up because some taxpayers of the district thought the road too expensive.
Today, however, about eighty taxpayers were present, and asked for the contract to be let. Supervisor Schu-macher held a conference with the La Habra and Brea people, in which it was found that a large share of the people wanted the road as outlined.

The paving to be used is the same as that in Fullerton. It is an asphaltic mixture without any concrete.
The paving will be five inches thick and the roadway 22 feet wide. The road will be one of the finest in the county.

The county will pay $15,000 of the cost of the road.

Bids Received
Bids were received for the paving of the Brea Canyon road, under the county highway system. These went to the Highway Commission for figuring.

U. S. WORRIES OVER CITIZENS ABROAD

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Government officials are gravely concerned as to the problem of getting Americans out of Galicia, Turkey. There has been but little success in all efforts made thus far. American refugees in Galicia are greatly in need of funds. There is less fear for the Americans in Turkey. Since Turkey has requested America to protect her interests with the European nations, she will therefore, naturally protect Americans in Turkey.

SEVEN PRODUCTS OVER MILLION DOLLARS EACH

McDannald to Feature Outputs
That Bring County $25,- 000,000 Yearly

INCREASE IN OIL IN YEAR $3,000,000

Special Display is to Be Given in Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce

Orange county has seven products that bring into the county over $1,000, 000 annually. The seven moneybringers are oil, sugar beets, refined sugar, lima beans, oranges, walnuts and poultry.

D. W. McDannald, Orange county's representative at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, has been telling the people that in his lectures in Los Angeles. He is now going to make a special exhibit featuring the facts concerning those seven products.
This morning McDannald was before the Board of Supervisors with a proposal to make a special exhibit depicting the county's output of these seven products. He proposed a pyramid on which will be displayed the various products.

McDannald said that the seven products are valued at $25,000,000 annually, and that other products of the county amount to $32,765,000. This total is taken from figures gathered by the traffic departments of the various railroads that do business in Orange county.

"The oil business has made a big jump in the last year," said McDannald. "Our production in 1913 was $8,000,000 for oil. In the last year $3,000,000 has been added to the annual production. A good deal of that is to be counted up through the Standard Oil Company's big well at Buena Park. That well is producing 10,000 barrels of oil a day."

WILL IS BRIEF AND TO POINT

Mrs. Ellen Clark Writes Directions Just Before Death
Sitting in Chair

"Santa Ana, Oct., 1914
"Oct. 30.
"Mr. Langley.
"To Mason lodge 100
"Rest to Parsha and Lily.
"ELLEN CLARK."

The above written just before death by Ellen Clark, and placed away in her New Testament, is one of the briefest wills ever filed for probate here. It was given into the county clerk's hands this morning by Ator-neys C. H. Stanley and Clyde Bishop, as attorneys for E. T. Langley, who applies for letters as executor, it being the declaration of the petitioner that the mention of Mr. Langley in the brief will is a nomination as executor.

Mrs. Clark lived for several months at the Keystone building, corner of Sixth and Main streets. She had been ill for a long time, though she was still able to walk about even up to the day of her death. She died while sitting in her chair. Later Elwell Spurges found her will in a New Testament that was found in the chair.
The will is in two pieces, written on two scraps of paper. On one scrap appears the words: "Santa Ana, Oct., 1914."

Mrs. Clark left a note for $2000, $105 on deposit in a bank and a house and lot at 1335 Logan street, Santa Ana.

Mr. Langley takes the will to mean that $100 is to go to the Norwalk lodge, F. & A. M., and that the remainder of the estate will be divided between Parsha Hangar, now living at the Florence Apartments, Santa Ana, and Lily White of Phoenix, Ariz.
